ABOUT TOWN.

—Mrs. Geo. C. Seibert has just returned from a visit to Keithsburg, Ill.

—The Sunday school teachers, Normal class will be held at Westminster S. S. room during March.

—A birthday surprise was given to Dr. Geo. C. Seibert at his residence on Ridgewood avenue, Wednesday evening, by a few clerical friends.

—We learn that a valuable horse belonging to Mrs. Paxton, of Brookdale, fell three times while being led to the shop to be shod, the last fall breaking a leg, when it died of its injuries.

—The annual town meeting will be held at Dodd's Hall next Monday evening. At this meeting the report of the Township Committee will be presented, and recommendations as to appropriations for the coming year will be made. Every tax payer should be present.

—While coasting on a "bob," a very painful accident happened to Master Robert Moss, son of Mr. Edgar Moss, Washington street; an ugly gash, five inches long and through to the bone, was cut above the knee in one of his legs. At last accounts he was doing well. Bobby has had enough of bobbing for the present.

—On Tuesday night a party of young folks left this place in a large wagon for a straw ride to Great Notch. Before returning the heavy snow-storm came on. The girls were safely stowed away under the blankets, and the boys were compelled to walk up all the hills, as the horses could not pull them on account of the snow. The return trip was made at the rate of about a mile an hour.

—Mr. Lyman B. Kent, of Brookdale, met with a serious accident on Sunday morning, 22d inst. While going from his barn to ward the house, carrying an empty pail in each hand, he slipped and fell heavily across one of the rails, breaking two of his ribs. One was broken in such a manner that his lung was endangered, and fears of a serious result were felt. Dr. J. J. H. Love was called at once, and he is now doing well.

—The icy period through which we have just passed has caused grave discomfort and serious injury in many localities. Many who desired to remain standing sat down very suddenly, and the feet of the astonished pedestrian became uncontrollable and went out on erratic ways, often resulting in the downfall of the hapless individual, who was thus illustrating the ups and downs of life. Horses and cattle were afraid to step out at all, and many were seriously injured.

—A masquerade ball was given by W. S. Pierson Post, No. 58, G. A. R., on Monday evening, at Raab's Assembly rooms. The arrangements were in charge of the Post Drum Corps, who gave every attention to their guests. Voss's string band furnished the music. The grand march, led by the Drum Corps, in their new suits, was begun at 9 o'clock. The various costumes of the dancers represented numerous subjects and presented a pretty and unique appearance.

—The Bloomfield Republican Club will hold a meeting Wednesday evening, March 4th, in upper Library Hall. All Republican voters should consider it an imperative duty to attend, as we are on the eve of our Township election, and matters of importance to all good citizens and property-owners are to be considered. Don't stay at home, and then afterwards make yourself ridiculous by complaining that proper candidates were not put up, or that things were not done to suit you.

—Last Saturday afternoon Henry Spear attempted to climb the flag-staff on the park to place the new rope in the pulley, but on account of the cold he was obliged to give up before reaching the top. Max Koehler, a member of the hose company, then made the attempt and succeeded. He had descended to the main mast, where his hands became so benumbed with the cold that he was compelled to remain there until his hands could be procured and spliced, and on these he reached the ground in safety. For this dangerous job he received $10 from the Township Committee.

Spear-Farrand.

Wednesday evening last, Miss Ida Farrand, daughter of Mrs. Anna Farrand, was united in marriage to Mr. Harmon Spear. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. S. W. Duffield, in the presence of a number of the relatives and intimate friends of the two families. The bride wore a dress of white brocade velvet and duchess satin; over her was suspended a large floral bell, and directly under the bell was a cluster of small electric lights, each bulb about the size of a pea. Miss Anna Farrand assisted as bridesmaid and Mr. Albert Spear as groomsmen. A reception was held immediately after the ceremony, which was attended by a large number of their friends from Bloomfield, Orange, New York and other places. All the available space in one of the upstairs rooms was occupied by the wedding presents, of which there were a great quantity, costly, beautiful and useful, in fact "perfectly lovely." (These are the only words in the female vocabulary which exactly express all we wish to say.) Mr. and Mrs. Spear left Bloomfield the same evening for an extended tour through the south; on their return they expect to live at the Farrand homestead. An elegant collation was served by Allen of Newark in his usual perfect manner.

Seminary Lecture.

The first of the winter course of the Seminary lectures will take place on Tuesday evening next, March 3d. The subject will be "Original Explorations in the Fayoum of Egypt—the ancient Goshen—with Arabic traditions of the canal of the Patriarch Joseph." The explanations were by the lecturer, Mr. Cope Whitehouse.

BLOOMFIELD CITIZEN: I am glad to learn that F. Cope Whitehouse, M. A., has been engaged to deliver one of the Seminary course of lectures. It was my great pleasure and privilege to hear Mr. Whitehouse read a paper at the January meeting of the American Institute of Christian Philosophy. He was heard with marked attention by an unusually intelligent body of ladies and gentlemen, who acknowledge the convincing strength of his arguments concerning the "Egypt of the Pentateuch," and particularly his views regarding the position of the Land of Goshen. His personal explorations enable him to speak with authority on these interesting questions.

It is hoped that the people of Bloomfield will avail themselves of the opportunity to hear Mr. Whitehouse.

CHARLES M. DAVIS.

Township Committee.

The Township Committee met on Tuesday evening to complete the business for the year. The report was presented by the Clerk, and shows the finances to be in a prosperous condition.

The Committee agreed to recommend the following appropriations for the new year: For Support of Poor, $2,000; Contingencies, 3,000; Construction of Roads, 2,000; Graveling of Roads, 3,000; Repairs of Roads, 1,500; Fire Purposes, 1,000; Construction of Sidewalks, 300; Groceries, 300; Public Grounds, 400; Water Supply, 5,760; Gas, 4,100; Firing Salutes, 50. The citizens' meeting to hear the report and pass upon appropriations will be held Monday evening, March 2. There should be a full meeting.

The "Doreas" Magazine.

A monthly magazine with this scriptural title has appeared on our table. It is edited by Laura B. Starr and published by Howard Bros. & Co., 872 Broadway, New York city, at the low price of a dollar a year. The magazine is devoted to fancy work executed with the needle or crochet hook. The masculine mind does not easily grasp the technical terms employed; but the feminine initiated consequently rail at masculine obtuseness. As nearly as we can make it out the periodical is a capital help to new ideas in needle-work and also to the various devices by which a home can be rendered more attractive.

Bloomfield Republican Club.

There will be a meeting of the Bloomfield Republican Club on Wednesday evening, March 4, at 8 o'clock, in Upper Library Hall. All Republican voters are members of the Club, and a large attendance is requested, as business of importance is to be transacted. A new Constitution has been drafted and will be acted upon.

Suicide.

August Mertz, aged 71 years, who has been an employee of Oakes' Mills for fifteen years, committed suicide last Wednesday, at his residence in New Street, by hanging himself, after a failure to accomplish the same end by cutting his throat. Wednesday afternoon his housekeeper went to Newark leaving him alone, and while she was gone he procured a rope which he fastened over a door in the parlor. A chair lying near the body showed that he had stood on it to adjust the rope, and that he had then pushed it aside. As he was over six feet tall he had been compelled to lift his feet to keep them from touching the floor. Mr. Keyler cut down the body soon after it was discovered, and County Physician Hewlett viewed it at 11 o'clock and granted a burial permit. The cause of the act was sickness; he having a cancer in the throat and an affection of the heart. He leaves three children, all married.

Obituary.

GILES H. COGGESHALL. Mr. Giles H. Coggeshall, a well known resident of Bloomfield, died very suddenly Saturday morning the 21st, inst., in his 83d year. Mr. Coggeshall was born in New York City in 1802, and came to Bloomfield to reside in 1866. When the Bowery Savings Bank was incorporated in 1834, he was appointed its Secretary, which position he retained up to the day of his death. He was a member of the Society of Friends. A wife, a daughter and three sons survive him.

MRS. EMMA F. HEDDEN. Mrs. Emma F. Hedden, wife of Mr. James A. Hedden, died at her residence in Bloomfield on Thursday evening of this week, from a severe attack of pneumonia. Mrs. Hedden had lived in Bloomfield for nearly twenty years, and was an active and zealous member of the Methodist Episcopal Church; she had also been identified with the Newark Orphan Asylum Society and other local charities.

THE ANGLER

The ladies will probably not be interested in reading the following conversation between two prominent gentlemen in this place:

First Gentleman—"Have an Angler?"

Second Gentleman—"Yes, thank you."

First Gentleman—"Why does 'The Angler' meet with the greatest success, and have the largest sale of any cigar on the market?"

Second Gentleman—"Because the 'bait' is the right sort."

First Gentleman—"Explain yourself."

Second Gentleman—"I usually have smoked Havana cigars, and know what I am talking about when I say that 'The Angler' contains more Havana tobacco and is the best TEN CENT CIGAR SOLD FOR FIVE CENTS on the market, and if the same 'bait' is continued there can be but one result; every smoker wishing a first-class cigar at a reasonable price will smoke 'The Angler.' I find that most of the leading cigar dealers sell them."

First Gentleman—"I agree with you, it is the only five cent cigar on the market that I care to offer to my friends who I know are accustomed to smoke good cigars."

Second Gentleman—"I have concluded to lay in a supply of 'The Angler' for fear that the manufacturers will fail, as they must be losing money on them at the price they are selling them at."

First Gentleman—"The suggestion is good, and I shall do the same."
